

Hi Neighbour!

You're Invited to a Community Meeting for a Proposed Development

Information

We invite you to join in the discussion about a development proposal located at 5229 Cordova Bay Road (corner of Cordova Bay Road and Fenn Avenue). You are receiving this invitation because you live within 100m of the proposed development. At this meeting we will make a presentation about the proposal and then answer questions.

This proposal involves a Rezoning and Development Permit application requesting to change the zoning of the property to accommodate a four storey mixed-use building with commercial and parking on the ground floor and residential units on the upper floors.

Meeting Details
